SEN. TYDINGS—GEN. MALONE

TYDINGS RECEIVES D. S. C.

Before a special review of troops at Fort Myer, Va., Senator Millard E. Tydings was awarded the Distinguished Service Cross for heroic service with troops in France during the World War.

Major General Paul B. Malone, commander of the Third Corp Area, made the presentation and read to the Senator a citation for extraordinary gallantry and bravery in fighting at Etrayes Ridge and at Samoeux in October, 1918. At that time Senator Tydings was Lieutenant Colonel, and lead his troops in the capture of the enemy.

The Distinguished Service Cross is the highest award that can be made without a special act of Congress.

Annual Homecoming Events Interesting To All Grads

Many alumni spent an eventful Homecoming November 3. At 10:30 the yearling footballers met the Washington and Lee Freshmen, but failed to gain a victory. While this was going on the Coed Physical Education Department was entertaining the ladies in a play-day with Marjorie Webster, American U. and Western Maryland. The day resulted in one win and two ties.

Silvester Reelected

Following these events, the University entertained its guests at a barbecue lunch at which there were over 300 present. Immediately after lunch the "M" Club held its annual meeting in the Trophy room of the Ritchie Coliseum. Major L. M. Silvester was again elected president of the club. After this, intramural athletes participated in a soccer game with the booters from Western Maryland, losing by the count of 4-2.

The high light of the day was the eleventh annual clash with the University of Virginia in Byrd Stadium. Some 5,000 persons witnessed the struggle, in addition to 2,000 school children who were guests of the Athletic Board. Maryland won the game 20-0, showing some flashy football to the delight of our old grads.

Dance Colorful

Following the game the fraternities and sororities held open house to their alumni. All organizations were pleased with a sizable return. Kappa Alpha led among the fraternities with A. O. Pi and Kappa tying for sorority honors.

At 9:00 P. M. the Homecoming dance began with Jack Bruce and his Show Boat Band from Station KDKA furnishing the music. Incidentally, many remarked that it was one of the best orchestras ever on the campus.

More than 500 alumni returned for the reunion, but many did not register, among those known to be present were:

MORTAR BOARD INSTALLS CHAPTER

MEMBERS OF ACTIVE CHAPTER

Five Acting, Two Honorary And Thirty-One Alumni Initiated

The Women's Senior Honor Society of the University of Maryland became a member of Mortar Board, national women's senior honor society, in an impressive installation ceremony held December 8, at College Park.

Prominent statesmen of Maryland and women of note from Washington were on hand to witness the initiation of the five active members, two honorary members, and 30 alumnae. The chapter was installed by Miss Margaret Charters, of Washington, national officer.

Mortar Board, composed of approximately 50 chapters throughout the country, selected the University of Maryland society from a group of three taken under consideration last year. The local chapter will be the only one in the State.

Regulations of the society require the group to select new members from those who have averaged a "B" in all classes at the close of their Junior year, and who fulfill the qualifications as campus leaders.

Officers of the new chapter are Miss Helen Wollman, president, Kathleen Hannigan, vice-president, and Evelyn Brumbaugh, secretary-treasurer. Other members are Mary Stallings and Felice Jacobs.

Adle Stamp, Dean of Women at the University, and Frances Maisch have been selected for honorary membership.

Alumnae to be initiated are Cecelia Hunt, Louise Saylor, Gene Smith, Elize Oberlin, Rosalie F. Goodhart, Virginia Cook, Florence Peter, Ruth Herzog, Margaret McMinnimy, Thelma De Atley, Elizabeth Gifford, Felisia Jenkins, Dorothy Young, Minna Cannon, Helen Habich, Isabelle Zynes, Eleanor Seal, Kathryn Barnsley, Helen Bradley, Elizabeth Bonthron, Margaret Meigs, Lois Watt, Rose Alice Laughlin, Helen McFerran, Louise Maffey, Mary J. McCurdy, Harriet Bischoff, Elgar Jones, Kathryn Melbig, and Mrs. Ernest Haines.

Iota Nu Delta Goes National

Iota Nu Delta, once local fraternity, was installed as a chapter in the Alpha Lambda Tau National Fraternity, December 15. Following the installation program at the chapter house in College Park, a banquet was held at Scholl's Cafe on Connecticut Avenue, Washington, D. C., with representatives from other national fraternities on the campus as guests.

Alpha Lambda Tau was founded at Oglethorpe University in 1919 and now has 28 chapters located throughout the South.

Flying Alumni

Even Homecoming is a criterion of the rapid development of aeroplanes as a means of travel. Several Alumni returned for the Old Grad reunion by plane, landing at the College Park airport. Robert (Bob) Allen, '32, and Ed Wheeler, '29, both in the U. S. Army flying corp, flew from Langley Fields, Va., for the reunion. From Quantico Va., Thomas Jack McQuade and Zeke Bailey, both of gridiron fame for the Old Liners back in '21, and '23, came zooming into College Park in fast U. S. Marine Corp pursuit planes.

Dr. Robinson On National Com.

Dr. J. Ben Robinson, Dean of the University of Maryland Dental School, has been appointed to the Dentists' Committee of the National Committee of Economics Security. A national conference of the committee was held at the White House in Washington, D. C., November 14.

Pi Delta Chapter of A. O. Pi Celebrates Tenth Birthday

Ten years ago, October 25, the national sorority of Alpha Omicron Pi installed the Pi Delta chapter at the University of Maryland. In celebration of the tenth birthday, a very delightful dinner was held at the chapter house in College Park with a large number of Alumnae present.

Helen Wollman, president of the active chapter, was mistress of ceremonies. Enthusiastic talks were made by several former presidents. Ellen Jane Bevens gave a comprehensive resume of the founding of the local chapter. Birthday gifts were presented by the members of the class of '34, the Alumni group of Washington, the pledges, and the active members.

Farrington Hostess At Mixer

Helen Farrington, '33, a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma, and now an instructor in the modern language department, was hostess at the Maryland Mixer, held December 7, in the University Gym. The Mixer is an annual affair and was the fourth to be held. The Mixer had one stipulation—everyone must come stag.

H. B. SHIPLEY

Shipley Facing Tough Job To Mold Winning Quintet

BURTON SHIPLEY, serving his eleventh season as coach of the Maryland varsity basket-ball, is facing a tough 18-game schedule with about the hardest task on his hands since he took the helm back in the season of 1923-24. That was the first season that Maryland put basket-ball on a real basis, and "Ship" proceeded to put it firmly among the nation's leaders.

Shipley, in the past 10 years, has won 117 and lost 53 games during the regular season, a remarkable record, considering the caliber of opposition. This is an average of 63 per cent victories, and Shipley will find it difficult to live up to that ratio this year.

Bernie Buscher, who played guard last year, but who may be shifted to forward, is the only 1933-34 regular left. Three others are left from last season, including Vic Willis, tall center, Norwood Sothoron, guard, and Alton Rabbitt, forward.

There are only five others on the squad, with Bill Andorka and Charlie Keller, guards, and Al Waters, all sophomores, being the most promising. Fred Scheels, a forward who was out last year for a while, also may prove an asset.

While Shipley has reached no definite conclusion as to his first team, he has had Buscher and Waters, forwards, Willis, center, and Andorka and Sothoron, guards, working together. This array, two juniors and three sophs, lack experience and the Terps may have their difficulties, particularly early in the season.

Edson B. Olds, Jr., '28, former manager of the basket-ball team and treasurer of the Student Government, has been elected to membership on the Washington Stock Exchange. Olds is a member of the firm of Brown, Goodwyn and Company, and has been active in financial circles for the past seven years. While at school he was a member of Kappa Alpha and O. D. K. Fraternity.

Varsity Boxing Team Due To Have Successful Year

COACH JACK HARMONY'S varsity boxing team, which will figure in eight meets, is going to be pretty hard to get along with this season—that is for its opponents.

With a letter man available for six of the eight classes and capable talent for the two other divisions, Harmony may even better the great season of 1934. He has been strengthened in the 115-pound class by the return of Jimmy Young, has insignia winners for all other weights, except the light-heavy, and John Gormley, soph full-back of the football team, promises to fill in there in fine shape.

Stew McGaw, who won the 1934 Southern Conference light-heavy crown, is slated to do his punch-trading in the 165-pound class, and he can make that poundage without difficulty.

Farrell Is Uncertain

Al Farrell, runner-up for the conference heavy crown, suffered a broken nose in football and may have to forego the ring. However, Carl Stalfort and John Birkland, the regular grid tacklers, can hold the heavyweight fort and, either might beat out Farrell if he is allowed to continue boxing. Stalfort won his letter last season and Birkland is a soph with a "rep."

Bill Waller, 125; Dick Babcock, 135; Walter Webb, 145, and Lyman McAbey, 155, are other aces left over from 1934, while Ivan Nedomatsky, 135, and Mike Lombardo, 155, are newcomers who bid fair to be sensations.

Harold Burns, the best 145-pounder at Maryland, may add more joy to the following of the sport, if he is able to report. He had a leg operation recently, due to an accident outside of athletics, but expects to be O. K.

WINNING PLAY IN GEORGETOWN GAME

SO THORON INTERCEPTING PASS WHICH HE ADVANCED TO SCORING POSITION

1934 Football Season Not Only Marked By Success, But Versatility And Spirit Of Squad Wins Praise

MARYLAND had a great football season in winning seven of ten games and, with a few good breaks or several bad breaks eliminated, might easily have recorded a clean slate.

The Terps lost only to Washington and Lee, 0 to 7; Navy, 13 to 16, and Indiana, 14 to 17, a margin of 13 points being responsible for the three reverses in fine contests. Mechanical errors proved costly in each of these games, but they are a part of football and pass without criticism.

As matters turned out, Maryland would have been Southern Conference champion had it not lost to Washington and Lee, as the Generals continued on to an unblemished record in the organization. The Terps got third place in the Conference with three wins and the one defeat.

Well-Knit Combination

Potentially not as powerful as many teams that it met during a most interesting campaign, the Old Liners combined a fine attack of passing and running plays, well developed teamwork and an almost matchless spirit, to earn high approbation, not only from their own followers, but from the fans in general. In fact, it was a corking good squad of fine fellows.

Maryland's first two teams usually lined up as follows:

First: Louis Ennis, Long Branch, N. J., and Vic Willis, Newark, Del., ends; John Birkland, Clifton, N. J., and Carl Stalfort, Baltimore, tackles; Ed Minion, Newark, N. J., and John Simpson, Chevy Chase, Md., guards; Bill Andorka, Lorain, Ohio, center; Norwood Sothoron, Charlotte Hall, Md., quarters; Bill Guckeyson, Bethesda, Md., and George Sachs, Washington, D. C., halfbacks, and John Gormley, Washington, D. C., fullback.

Second: Charlie Ellinger, Baltimore, and Bernie Buscher, Washington, D. C., ends; Brooks Bradley, Baltimore, or Al Farrell, Washington, D. C., and Charlie Callahan, Baltimore, tackles; Steward McCaw, Rochester, N. Y., and Ed Fletcher, Washington, D. C., guards; Harry Gretz, Washington, D. C., center; Earl Widmyer or Jack Stonebraker, both of Hagerstown, quarter; Dick Nelson, Washington, D. C., and Coleman Headley, College Park, Md., or Joe Crecca, Newark, N. J., halfbacks, and Ed Daly, New Brighton, N. Y., or Charlie Yaeger, Baltimore, fullback.

Of these 26, Simpson, Sothoron, McCaw, Widmyer, Nelson and Crecca will be lost to the 1935 squad. Luther Goldman, a guard who won his letter in 1933, will be the only other man to graduate from a squad that totaled 37.

Many Maryland Gridders Put On All-Star Elevens

MANY MARYLAND football players got wide recognition during 1934—more than in any previous season.

Norwood Sothoron, named as all-Southern Conference fullback in the Associated Press poll of coaches and writers, and Vic Willis, picked as all-Southern end by Bill Alexander, Georgia Tech mentor and member of the All-American board of coaches, came in for most attention.

Sothoron was on every all-State team, as well as all those selected for the District of Columbia area; Willis gained practically the same honors; Bill Guckeyson, back, was unanimous all-State and on several all-D. C. teams; John Simpson, guard, was an almost general choice, while Louis Ennis, end, and Ed Minion, guard, were on some of the first elevens and when not top choices, always were in the second array.

Sothoron, Willis, Minion and Guckeyson were given honorable mention on the Associated Press All-American list.

Others to come in for recognition, either as second choice or for honorable mention, in sectional selections were Bill Andorka, center; Carl Stalford and John Birkland, tackles; George Sachs, Jack Stonebraker, Coleman Headley, John Gormley, Joe Crecca and Ed Daly, backs.

Andorka was on two of three all-State second teams, and Birkland and Stalford held runner-up positions on one team each.

Comments From Indiana

The Alumni, no doubt, will be interested in the following excerpt from the "Casual Comment" column of the Bloomington "Evening World," about the Indiana-Maryland football game:

"The fans must have thought sports writers were just slinging hooey when they said that Bo McMillin had decided to fight fire with fire and would have his boys meet the Marylanders in a wide open exhibition of offensive football.

"Well, the joke may have been on us when the fans didn't believe all we told them, but the joke was on the fans who stayed at home Saturday afternoon in sublime ignorance of the fact that thunder was popping loose in a big way in the Memorial Stadium.

"When the smoke pulled away from the torrid battle and Indiana was on top 17-14, Crimson grid fans had lots to say in praise of their own men, but they didn't forget the great team from College Park. There was universal demand for another game sometime in the future.

"Maryland came to Bloomington promising plenty of fireworks, and a whirlwind passing attack. Usually these promises fade out toward the middle of the game and the two elevens settle down to a punting duel or choose to battle it out on the ground level.

"Not so with Maryland! From their very first play to the last the Terrapins made the air dark with passes. Seven straight were completed in one series and ended in a touchdown. Basket-ball teams we have seen were laid to shame by the ball-handling those Old Liners did with the oval.

"Things looked pretty dark when Indiana led 17-7, but not for long. That great end, Vic Willis, staged the finest exhibition of wing play it has ever been the privilege of this writer to witness since seeing Wesley Fesler turn it on for Ohio State some years ago.

"The game was the cleanest this writer has seen in eight years of football coverage. Despite the terrific fighting on the part of both teams, only three penalties were called, all for offsidings.

"In the closing minutes, with everyone excited, Vic Willis was thrown by an Indiana tackler into the Indiana bench and the bench-warmers thrown to the ground. Did Willis get up mad, as would have been quite natural under the circumstances? He picked himself out of the heap of players, benches and equipment with a big grin on his face. And did the fans like it? The cheer given him was an answer."

12 Old Line Gridmen Share In Registering 143 Points

Maryland's varsity eleven registered 143 points during the season and 12 players figured in the scoring. Norwood Sothoron and Bill Guckeyson, with 24 each, led the parade with the others as follows:

George Sachs, 18; Jack Stonebraker, 16; Earl Widmyer, 15; John Gormley, 10; Joe Crecca, John Simpson, Coleman Headley, Vic Willis and Buddy Yaeger, 6 each; and Ed Daly, 4.

All are backs, except Simpson and Willis. Simpson intercepted a Florida pass to count and Willis blocked an Indiana punt and recovered the ball to get his 6-pointer. He also threw a V. M. I. ball carrier for a safety.

Many Alumni Prominent In Political Activities

Many University Alumni were among the political participants in the recent State elections. Governor-elect Harry W. Nice is a graduate of the Law School of '98. His rival, Governor Albert C. Ritchie, is also a graduate of the same school. In the primaries Governor Ritchie was opposed by Dr. Charles Conley, a graduate of the University Medical School of '98.

Herbert O'Connor, newly elected Attorney General, is also a graduate of the Law School, as well as Lansdale Sasser, State Senator. Hugh Allen Meade, a candidate for Speaker of the House of Delegates, is another of the University's Law graduates.

Re-elected To Congress

Honorable W. P. Cole, '10, Stephen W. Gambrill, '92, and T. Alan Goldsborough, '02, were re-elected by comfortable majorities to the U. S. Congress. In the United States Senate, the University has 100% representation, George L. Radcliffe, '09, Senator-elect, and Millard E. Tydings, '10, Senior Senator, are both graduates of the Law School. Tydings also graduated from the College Park School in Engineering.

Probably more than these mentioned were victorious in county campaigns. In Prince George's County, Egbert Tingley, '27, was elected to the House of Delegates, while over in Montgomery County, Thomas C. Kelly, Jr., '26, became a judge of the Orphan's Court. In Baltimore City, Frank Every was elected to the State Senate. Washington County sends Henry Holzappel, 3rd., '29, as a delegate to the Legislature.

The infant Alumni to win seats in the House of Delegates are John Clark, '34, former chairman of the student Democratic Club, and John F. Webster, Jr., '34, a member of the same club.

Scheels was out for the varsity once before for a short while but did not get into any games. All the others, except the four leftovers, are sophomores. Buscher is the only basketer who played regularly last season.

Spider Chase and Bob Snyder, forwards; Rufus Vincent, center, and Buckey Buscher, guard, were last season's regulars to be lost.

Inexperienced Frosh Grid Squad Shows To Advantage

Winning two and losing three games with a green lot of material, Coach Al Henegy, aided by Buckey Buscher, did a fine job with the Freshmen football team.

Twenty-three aspirants were on the squad and 11 of them never had played football before, and the total experience of the 12 who tried the game in high school averaged less than 2½ seasons each.

Bill Wolfe, guard; Bob Walton, center, and Frank DeArmev and Fred Thomas, backs, were the outstanding performers. Tom Koontz, guard, and Bill Bryant, Mike Sargert and Waverly Wheeler, backs, displayed promise and should develop.

Walton, Koontz, Wheeler and Thomas, a brother of the noted "Knocky," were among those playing the game for the first time.

PEP RALLIES HELD BY ALUMNI

On the eve of the Florida-Maryland football game the Alumni of Baltimore and vicinity held a pep rally at the Southern Hotel with more than 100 enthusiastic alumni present. Major L. M. In Washington a similar rally was held at Scholl's Cafe on the eve of the Georgetown battle to shout their acclaim for a victory the next day, and they got it, Maryland won from Georgetown 6-0, and also from Florida 19-0.

More Alumni Send Sons And Daughters To The University

Reports from the Registrar's office show that each year more sons, daughters, or relatives of former grads enter the University at College Park. This year more than 125 freshmen have family connections with former students. This is an increase of 50 over the number to register last year. The increase indicates encouraging interest and loyalty that former students have for their Alma Mater.

Incidentally, the total registration for this academic year is 1700 students, an increase over last year. Of this number the Freshmen class contributes 500 members, which is also an increase over the previous frosh class.

Cumberland Group Plans

Alumni Rally January 2

With the recovery of Brooke Whiting, '98, the Cumberland group is planning several get-togethers this year. One will be when Maryland encounters West Virginia in basketball at Cumberland January 2.

The Cumberland group has always been one of the most active groups of the association, and only because of the serious illness of their president, Brooke Whiting, did they miss the annual affair last year, but plans are going forward to make up for lost time.

Many counties will have organized groups before the season is over. Several have taken the initial step and real get-togethers are planned.

Alumni Direct Fair

Curry Nourse, '30, now Mrs. D. R. Caples, and C. Merrick Wilson, '29, members of the Poolesville High School faculty, were the directors of the annual Poolesville Fair held last month. Members of the Home Economic Department and the school's chapter of the Future Farmers of America played prominent parts in the program.

Some issues ago an appeal was made to Alumni for those copies of the Reveille needed to complete a file started by the late Dr. S. S. Buckley, '93, and presented to the Alumni Association by his daughters.

Dr. A. W. Griffith, '09, and S. S. Stabler, '10, generously have contributed several of the needed copies. There are, however, three more years still needed to complete the files. They are 1915, 1920, and 1921. Copies of these particular years will be gratefully appreciated by the Alumni office.

Dr. Goldman, '21, Heads Active Pittsburgh Group

Headed by Dr. Bernard A. Goldman, M. D., '21, the Pittsburgh Group of the Maryland Alumni Association is making earnest efforts to have the most successful season of its history.

The group includes alumni from all branches of the University, and membership is expected to double that of previous years. Dr. Goldman can be reached at the Jenkins' Arcade in Pittsburgh, and he would be glad to hear from any alumni there, or any who may be passing through.

Lafayette Received First Honorary Degree In 1821

It was 110 years ago last October 9, when the first honorary degree given by the University was conferred upon General Marquis de Lafayette of Revolutionary War fame.

It was then forty years after the Revolutionary War when the General came to America on a triumphal tour. The city of Baltimore was in a state of excitement to welcome the nation's idol who was so closely associated with General George Washington in the war for American liberty.

Lafayette Replies

As recorded by the then Baltimore papers, "The Baltimore Daily Advertiser" and the "Federal Gazette," the General was met by U. S. Senator Alexander Contee Hanson, Dr. Davidge, the Rev. James Kemp, provost of the University, and a committee of learned professors, and was escorted to the Anatomical Lecture Hall in the University's new Medical building. Senator Hanson delivered a most eloquent address and the General was presented with the diploma accompanied by a handsome silver box to enclose it. The General accordingly replied:

"Gentlemen, I, the Marquis de Lafayette, am deeply grateful of the honor you have bestowed upon me personally and as a representative of my country. I cannot help but recall at this time my previous visit to your city, 40 years ago. Then the fires of liberty were indeed low, the hardships of war had left their mark upon you all, but there was among your citizenry never a suggestion of defeat, never . . ."

Stopped At Rossbourg Inn

The Medical building still is standing at the corner of Lombard and Greene streets, and is the oldest building in America devoted to the teaching of medicine.

General Lafayette is not only recorded in the historical annals of the University as having received an honorary degree, but also was a visit-

Dr. Standish McCleary, '90, a member of the Medical Council of the University, died November 19, 1934, at his home in Baltimore. He was well known on the University Faculty for his pathological teachings.

Dr. L. E. Neale, professor emeritus of obstetrics in the University of Maryland, and for many years one of the foremost authorities on obstetrics and gynecology in the country, died at his home in Baltimore, early October 19, 1934. The doctor graduated in 1881 and continued his studies in Europe. Dr. Neale retired from private practice in 1923.

Employment Bureau

For the benefit of those who desire employment the Alumni office is endeavoring to establish contacts for Alumni who have registered their desire for employment. Several colleges of the University are also giving able assistance in helping to secure placements for former students. All Alumni who are interested are therefore urged to register with the Alumni office because frequently the opportunities want applicants immediately.

Alumni who are in a position to secure or to offer positions are urged to keep in touch with Alumni office. By doing this they will be giving their fellow Alumni a better chance as well as make for a better and stronger Alumni Association.

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION ANNUAL DUES.... $2.00

Your Association Needs Dues

Many alumni are interested in keeping in touch with their Alma Mater and want to see an association of alumni progress, but forget that financial assistance is necessary in order to successfully carry on the program. In a few instances it is the economic conditions, in some it is procrastination, but in others we fear it is a lack of interest for not sending in their dues.

Dues are ammunition with which the Association must go into action, without which the usefulness and progress of the Association is seriously curtailed.

Many loyal alumni have paid their dues of $2.00, for which the Association is grateful, but the total amount received is not sufficient to meet the annual budget requirements.

A few more than 300 have paid for this year, which is a small percentage of the total list, and at least 300 more are needed to keep the Association out of the red.

Alumni, your Association needs your help.

All-University Program

Will Be Saturday, March 2

All-University Night will be held Saturday, March 2, in the Ritchie Coliseum at College Park. The program will include a basket-ball game, demonstrations of the athletic activities of the men and women's physical education departments, the Military Department, supplemented by contributions in music by the Glee Club and University Band. This will be followed by a boxing match with the West Point Cadets.

Over 4500 spectators crowded the Coliseum last year to see this comprehensive exhibition of the extensiveness of the University's athletics and activities program. More than 300 students will participate in the program this year.

The All-University program held last year for the first time was so successful that it seems certain to become an annual function.

McABOY STOPS BOYD OF V. M. I.

W. & L. In Boxing, Virginia

On Court To Thrill Alumni

By W. H. ("Bill") HOTTEL

MARYLAND'S indoor teams, with the basketballers traveling at a good pace and the boxers apparently on a par with the best in the section, are providing fine entertainment for the fans who crowd Ritchie Coliseum at most every contest.

Alumni who will come back on February 2, will be able to get a good line on both. The boxers will meet Washington and Lee, seeking revenge for past happenings, for in the four past meets the Generals have won three times and tied once. Last year the Generals scored a 4½ to 3½ upset and in 1933 the teams fought a 4-all deadlock.

Virginia, Old Court Rival

The basketballers will take on Virginia, one of their oldest court rivals in their 22nd meeting, with Maryland holding a 14 to 7 edge in their past battles. The Old Liners won last year, both at Charlottesville and College Park, taking the latter tilt, 28 to 25, by a rally in the last few minutes.

While coach Burton Shipley's basket squad is lacking in experience it has speed and latent ability and will get better as the season goes along.

Among its early season victories was one over Ohio State of the Big Ten and Coach Jack Harmony's boxers got underway by conquering the V.M.I. Cadets in decisive fashion, 6 to 2.

Here is how the basketballers have fared:

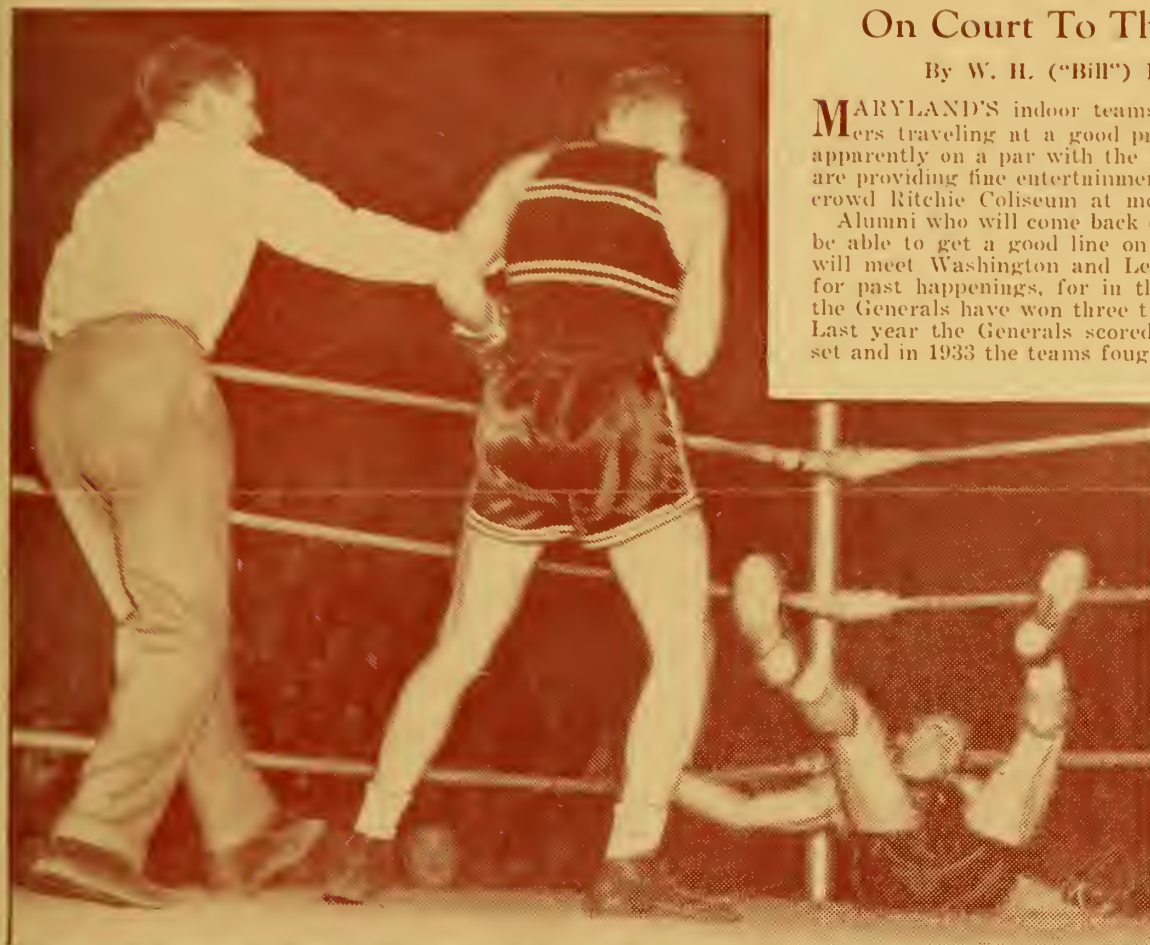

December 20—Maryland, 25; Indiana, 30.
December 29—Maryland, 50; Ohio State, 41.
January 2—Maryland, 29; West Virginia, 39.
January 4—Maryland, 35; South Carolina, 21.
January 8—Maryland, 39; V.M.I., 21.
January 11—Maryland, 39; Duke, 48.
January 16—Maryland, 43; Washington College, 27.
January 18—Maryland, 31; North Carolina, 38.

Future Games

January 23—Johns Hopkins.
January 30—Navy at Annapolis.
February 2—Virginia.
February 9—University of Richmond.
February 12—Catholic University at Washington.
February 14—Virginia Tech.
February 16—Washington and Lee.
February 20—Virginia at Charlottesville.
February 26—Johns Hopkins at Baltimore.
March 2—St. John's.
March 11—Georgetown.

Coach Harmony's boxers, who, in addition to V.M.I., have beaten University of Richmond, 6 to 2, have the following other attractive matches:

February 2—Washington and Lee.
February 9—Penn State.
February 16—Virginia at Charlottesville.
February 22 and 23—Southern Conference tourney at Charlottesville.
March 2—Army.

Army Boxing Team Invades For All-University Night

MARCH 2, has been set for all-University night, which was inaugurated last year and which will be an annual mid-winter feature.

The West Point boxing team will visit College Park for a match with the Old Liners, that should provide a fitting finale to a big evening.

A basket-ball game to open the program also has been arranged with St. John's by shifting dates.

Last year more than 300 students and members of the faculty and staff, both men and women, took part in the program, representing practically every phase of Maryland's curricular and extra curricular activities. The program this year will be somewhat widened in scope.

The pretentious affair will start at 7:30 o'clock and will take about 3½ hours for completion.

Jayvee Boxers In Draw

Maryland Jayvee boxers, despite they forfeited one bout, got an even break at 4-all in a meet with Staunton Military Academy. Tom Birmingham, 125; Mummer Schwartz, 145; Harold Kelly, 155, and John Gormley, 175, won bouts for the Terps.

TRACKMEN TO COMPETE IN BIG GOTHAM GAMES

MARYLAND'S trackmen are due to make their indoor bow in the Millrose A. A. games in New York the night of February 2.

As matters shaped up in advance, Earl Widmyer, veteran sprinting ace, and Joe Ryan, sophomore sprinter, and a relay team were due for action.

Bob Archer, Coleman Headley, Milo Sonen, Warren Evans, Bob Slye and Selby Frank are competing for places on the quartet, with the four first named favored.

If the relay team shapes up well without him, Headley may run in the "Millrose 1,000," an invitation classic in which he has been asked to compete.

Headley was holding down a regular guard job on the basket-ball team when he shifted to track.

Some Good Frosh Talent

Maryland has some good talent on its freshman basket-ball squad this season, particularly "Little Knocky" Thomas, Waverly Wheeler, Bill Bryant and John McCarthy, all Washington high school products, and Hyman Brodsky, who hails from Brooklyn, N. Y. "Little Knocky" Thomas is taller and a little heavier than his brother who won grid and track fame for the Terps a few years back.

THE BUDGET CUT

The Alumni Association of the University feels that it is not real economy to balance the State Budget at the expense of the State's Educational program. To cut severely the University's present appropriation might damage the University for a long time to come, for good faculties are hard to build up. It is possible that the Governor, in making out his budget, did not fully realize the extent to which he was cutting the University, because it is generally felt that he is sympathetic towards the Institution. It is a constant gratification to the Alumni to know the respect in which the University is held among educational authorities.

We are not unmindful of the fact that the State must balance its budget, but the very last thing that should be touched is education. Should educational economies be absolutely necessary, it should not be concentrated in one institution, especially not the State University, and at the same time increase appropriations to other institutions within the State, to which the State is giving an annual subsidy, hardly seems in accordance with sound procedure.

Every alumnus and student of the University, and there are more than 10,000 throughout the State, wants his diploma to represent the highest standards of education. The University is rendering an unparalleled service to the State, and to deprive any of the younger generation of educational opportunities it offers, is not sound judgment and is a short-sighted policy.

Year-book Changes Name

Much to the surprise of many old timers, the annual year-book, heretofore known as the Reveille, will be known henceforth as the Terrapin. This is the result of a vote of the student body, showing only four dissenting votes, and the unanimous vote of the Student Executive Committee.

The name "Reveille" had its inception in the year 1897, when the year-book first began at the College Park Schools, then known as the Maryland Agricultural College, and primarily a military institution. It was known by this name until 1921 and 1922, two years after the University's consolidation, when a joint year-book with the Baltimore Schools was published, known as the Terrea Maria. In 1923 and 24 no book was published, but when resumed in 1925 the name Reveille was again used.

The student body now feels that the Reveille was symbolical of the Military School, and as we are no longer a strictly military institution, the name Terrapin would be more appropriate.

Must Have Your Dues

It was pointed out at the annual meeting last year that unless more paid memberships were received in the Alumni Association that the full program could not be carried on throughout the year. In spite of this by a majority vote of those attending the annual meeting, it was decided to carry on the present program, of which the publishing of the ALUMNI NEWS was the main issue.

This has been carried on to date, but unless more members pay their dues in the Association for this year the Treasury will finish with a deficit.

This I do not believe any alumnus would want to see. Therefore it depends on those who have not paid their dues for this year to send them into the Treasurer at once.

gents, State and county leaders will be in the reviewing stand.

May Day

In the afternoon the Maryland Federation of Women's Clubs, headed by Mrs. Randolph Allen, will hold dedicatory exercises for the formal garden planting at Margaret Brent Hall.

At 3:30 P. M., the annual May Day Festival by the Junior Girls will be presented, at which time the coveted crown of Queen of the May will be made.

In the evening several fraternities are holding their spring formals and having annual alumni banquets.

All during the day a bureau of information will be found in the Library near the top of the hill.

Annual Meeting

On Saturday, May 4, Alumni registration will begin at 8:30 A. M., at the University Gymnasium, which will be alumni headquarters. Auto parking and rest-room facilities are conveniently available. The annual meeting will be held in the Gym at 10:00 A. M., at which time certain business matters will be discussed and officers for the ensuing year will be elected. Special places will be prepared for class reunions, which will immediately follow the meeting.

Baseball between Georgetown and Maryland will begin at 11:30 at the stadium. A barbeque lunch will be available for the Alumni between 12 and 2:00 P. M., in the rear of the east stands at the stadium. Meals will be free to all Alumni, wives and friends who registered and purchased tickets to the athletic events.

Lacrosse Game

The annual scholastic track and field meet will begin at 1:00 P. M., in Byrd Stadium. Also a varsity triangle track meet between V. P. I., Washington and Lee, and Maryland will run concurrently. At 4:00 P. M., Maryland will engage Syracuse University in lacrosse.

As a climax to the day's program the highly attractive supper dance will be held in the University Gym immediately following the lacrosse game. This feature of the program has been so successful when held in the past that it is advisable to make your reservations as early as possible.

Room Accommodations

Special arrangements have been made near by for room accommodations for those alumni who attend the two day program. Also those who wish to go into Washington may go to the Colonial Hotel, where Bob Blackstone, '26, is manager, at a nominal charge. These reservations, however, must be made with the Alumni Office in advance.

Mark it on your calendar NOW. Do not miss this reunion, the greatest ever held.

The committee on the reunion program is headed by H. B. Derrick, and assisted by Miss Josephine Blandford, '27, and L. M. Silvester, '11, president of "M" Club.

Field Day To Offer More Action Than Ever Before

MARYLAND has had some lively Field Days in the past, but the one to be held this year on May 4 will eclipse all others in amount of action.

Baseball, track, lacrosse and tennis make up the card and it will take a lot of legging and eyeing to see all that transpires.

Including the 13 open scholastic events, the six closed to county high schools of the State, the 14 in the triangular meet among the Maryland, Washington and Lee and Virginia Tech varsities and the 13 in the Terp freshmen's dual affair with Gallaudet, there will be a total of 46 track finals, not to mention the heats in the dashes, hurdles and some others.

Georgetown will offer the opposition in baseball. Catholic U. will invade for tennis, and Syracuse, one of the north's leaders, will figure in the stick battle that will fittingly close the program.

A detailed schedule of the events will be found elsewhere in the news.

It will be a "hot time in the old town."

Following graduation he started teaching school, but soon went into the electrical business in Baltimore. A few years later, Senator Latimer went to the Eastern Shore where he began a merchandise and farming business at Broomes Island in Calvert County, and he has been a resident there now for more than 30 years.

His active interest in community, county, and state affairs soon won for him the confidence of the people and he was elected to the State Senate in 1934. He has two brothers, who are graduates of the University's Medical School.

BOXING TEAM GIVEN TESTIMONIAL DINNER

"Boxing is a sport which creates courage and builds character," said Congressman Frederick A. Hartley, of New Jersey, in his talk at the testimonial dinner given in honor of the boxing team by the Washington Alumni Group.

H. C. (Curly) Byrd, vice-president of the University, and Lieutenant John Harmony, coach of the boxing team, were the other speakers. T. D. Vandoren, president of the Washington group, was toastmaster.

Entertainment was furnished by Miss Florence Small, Conrad Gebeline and the men's quartet of the University.

Boxers Top Indoor Season; Trackmen Set Some Marks

THE TERPS' boxing team, unbeaten in dual meets, finishing second in the Southern Conference tourney and crowning two champs, provided the big kick of the indoor season, however, the basket ball team, despite it won only 8 of 18 games, contributed much that was enjoyable, and Geary Eppley's travelling track team was very much in the limelight.

Defeating V.M.I., Richmond U., Washington and Lee, Penn State, Army and Catholic U. and tying Virginia 4-all, the Old Line ringmen were rated on a par with the heretofore predominating Cavaliers.

Incidentally, Penn State, which Maryland beat, 5 to 3, later won the Eastern Intercollegiate championship.

Ivan Nedomatsky, 135, and Stew McCaw, light-heavy, won Conference titles, the latter repeating, and Lyman McAboy, 155-pounder, assuredly would have brought home the honors in his class had he not broken his hand in winning his semifinal. Nedomatsky, rated the ace of all boxers of his weight in the country, also broke his thumb in taking his title, and Lieut. Jack Harmony, Maryland's unmatchable coach, won over the Army and Catholic U. without these two great scrappers.

The three mentioned with Walter Webb, 145 pounder, were the leaders on the team. There were others of great worth, of course, notably Jimmy Young, 115, but space won't permit mentioning them all.

Willis All-State Choice

VIC WILLIS, who was picked as all-State center; Al Waters, forward, and Bernie Buscher, who played up front or at guard, were the outstanding trio on the basket-ball team, they played more consistently than the others, although Buscher was out for nearly three weeks with an injured leg, this and the greenness of the squad generally made Burt Shipley's task difficult.

At that it was the third time in 11 years as Terp mentor that he finished in the "red" and his average over the stretch is 66½ per cent victories.

With all his men returning, except Norwood Sothoron, and some good boys from the freshman quint that won 4 of its 5 tilts, Ship should be back in front ranks next year.

Harmony loses only two of his boxers—McAboy and McCaw—but as he puts it "their shoes can't be filled, as there are no more patterns of their type."

Trackmen Set Records

IN TRACK, Earl Widmyer and the members of the relay team did most of the competing. Widmyer and Warren Evans in the 440 and the relay quartet took Southern Conference indoor titles, the latter two setting new records; Widmyer beat Metcalf, Peacock and other famous sprinters in the West Virginia meet series, while Coleman

LYMAN MCABOY

STEWART MCCAW

Only two fellows who have been on ring team ever since Coach Lieut. Jack Harmony took charge three years ago. Both will be graduated next June and will leave big gaps in the line-up. They are sportsmen as well as athletes.

Headley, a soph, did some fancy running in the half mile in three meets. Headley, Evans with Bob Archer and Milo Sonen made up the mile relay team that beat North Carolina and Duke to set the Conference record of 3:26.5. Evans' new quarter mile mark was 52.5.

The quartet also outran Princeton and Yale in a triangular race in the New York A. C. games in 3:26.5 to establish a new University mark.

All Spring Teams Appear Sure To Be Tough Foemen

MARYLAND'S spring teams—in lacrosse, baseball, track and tennis—will take part in 49 contests during the season now near at hand and they should make the going rather rough for their rivals.

Swede Eppley makes no bones of the fact that with Earl Widmyer and Joe Ryan in the dashes, Milo Sonen, Bob Archer, Warren Evans, Coleman Headley, Joe Galliger, Bob Beall and Don Ashton as his leading runners, Bill Guckeyson, Tracy Coleman and Bob Boucher in the field events; Bob Slye and Willard Beers, in the hurdles and jumps, and Harley Drake in the pole vault he has the nucleus of the best team he ever coached.

BURT SHIPLEY'S ball team will be a success if he can find a first sacker and get the proper kind of pitching to combat a hard 24 game schedule. Steve Physioc and Vic Willis are the mainstays on the mound, with Foster Mathias and Ford Loker, two sophs, as the most promising rookies.

Bob Love, Harry Clark and John Gormley, catchers; Norwood Sothoron, Dick Nelson, Don Bartoo and Jack Stonebraker, infielders, and Charlie Keller, Jake Hartenstien and Ed Daly, outfielders, appear to be the players who will have to carry the burden. Lyman McAboy, third sacker, will be missed for a time on account of the injury to his hand in boxing.

Love, the Handy Andy of the squad, can play the outfield or pitch, and if Clark and Gormley can carry on behind the bat he may be seen in various roles.

JACK FABER and Al Heagy, who handled the lacrosse squad for the three weeks Faber remained with the gridders in the spring toil, apparently will have a stick team that will be in the race.

Jack Kelly, goal, and brother of Jim, and Charlie Ellinger, attack, are the only rookies to break into the first team tentative lineup. The defense is led by Sam Silber, Leonard Rombro, Jim Hart, Lou Ennis, all letter men, and Charlie Yaeger, while the offense centers around Ike Rabbitt, center; Ramsay Thomas and Herb Brill, outside attacks, and John Christhlf and Ellinger, homes.

Christhlf and Ellinger should be the best pair of homes playing lacrosse this season.

Alumni and Students Present University With New Flag Pole

A new 80ft. flag pole will be presented to the University as a result of contributions by the Alumni Association, the Student Government Association and the class of '34. The pole will be erected before the Annual Alumni Reunion on May 4, at which time appropriate presentation ceremonies will be held.

The location of the new pole as suggested by the architect will be in front of the Library at the intersection of the center axis of the Library and the Agriculture Building.

A special design for the base has been drawn by Maj. Howard W. Cutler, architect. The new base will not be completed by Alumni Day because of insufficient funds. The base provides a place for the memorial plaques which used to be on the old gateway to the campus.

Credit for the concerted efforts in the purchase of the new pole goes to the late J. Enos Ray, president of the Alumni Association, Edward Quinn, former president of the Student Government, and Norwood Sothoron, president of the class of 1934.

Plenty of Delectable Sporting Events Remain on Old Liners' List

Varsity and Freshman Athletes and Intramuralites Swarming Fields

THIS is sports hash, it had to be as a review of the winter season was given in the last issue of the News and spring sports just were getting underway when this was banged off the old typewriter.

Little had happened up to the time this was written in the way of outdoor pastimes for 1935, the varsity stickmen, however, had taken the measure of the Alumni by a score of 11 to 1 at College Park on March 30, and on April 4 the Harvard stickmen were victims of a 11 to 0 defeat. Burton Shipley's baseballers made an impressive start by defeating Cornell 10 to 1 and 5 to 1 on consecutive days and followed up by trimming Harvard 8 to 2 the next day.

But enough had been shown by the lacrosse, baseball, track and tennis teams in their preparation for the 49-event varsity card to indicate that the Old Liners should be well on the right side of the ledger when the summing up is done the latter part of May.

By the time this was figured to get into the hands of the grads, 21 of the 49 affairs carded were due to have been won or lost, rained out or something, but leaving plenty of delectable dishes for the alumni to consume before commencement is held.

Take a look at the schedules, particularly the one for Field Day, May 4, and you will find ample to give you a good excuse to have to come to College Park "on business."

WITH the Varsity and Freshman squads busily engaged in four pastimes each and the intramuralites swarming around like bees, even the spacious athletic facilities at College Park are being taxed.

It is not a theory but a well established fact that healthy bodies make strong minds and keeping a student fit is an important part of educational life nowadays. Maryland is doing its best to coordinate the two factors in the proper proportions and is succeeding remarkably well.

Many On Varsity Squads

NINETY-FOUR of these who are doing their "daily dozen" are aspirants on varsity teams. Swede Eppley leads the parade with 35 on his track combination, Jack Faber and Al Heagy come next with the stickmen with 26, Shipley has 20 on his ground outfit, and Les Bopst is fathering 13 racket swingers.

It is well known, of course, that Roy Mackert is the major domo of intramural activities and that he is not letting any grass grow under his feet in directing the job.

Spring Footballer Toiled

Remaining Events

BY THE TIME this is "hot off the press," a little more than 40 per cent of the Old Liners' spring varsity events will have been decided, but there still will remain a majority of the highlights.

were left after the seasonal sports claimed the men they needed to carry on. Only a few more than 20 were left to don grid suits and with practice not compulsory at Maryland, like it is most places, only about 65 per cent of the bunch showed up any one day.

However, two scrimmages were held with Catholic University and a half dozen or so of the boys, linemen and backs, gave great promise of being a lot of help to the varsity next fall.

But anyone who tries to tell you that spring football practice is welcomed by gridders at any school is giving you the bunk, being particularly burdensome to those who want to play baseball, lacrosse or tennis or do their bit for the track team. When a fellow has his mind and heart on something else it is just plain drudgery.

Varsity Alumni Lacrosse

THAT lacrosse game between the varsity and grads was an enjoyable affair and a lot more interesting and hard fought than the score indicated. The "old boys" still knew their onions and most of them retained there mastery of the shillelah, but their legs wouldn't pound up and down the field like they did in the days gone by. That was the main difference in the teams.

More than 20 grads came back to play in the game, including Bus Pfau, Joe Deckman, Morris Nicholson, Jim Kelly, Herman Epstein, Gordon Pugh, Fred Stieber, Jimmy Lee, Sam Crosthwait, Ed Ronkin, Gabby Streett, Bob Snyder, Harry Wilson, George Hocken-smith, Bill Wood, Frank Hawkins, Bill Beatty, Skip Faber, Doug Smink and Emmett Loane.

Gus Crothers was back but he took up most of the side lines instead of playing and Fred Invernizzi also had to look on because of a shoulder injured in practicing with the Baltimore A. C. team, a newcomer to the Monumental City lacrosse ranks.

Most of the boys were in pretty good trim. Of course, Jim Kelly wasn't. As someone said, "Kelly never was in shape when he was all-America goalie, why should he be in condition now."

"Chief" Beatty, who flivvered all the way from Long Branch, N. J., got the grads' lone marker. He said he couldn't travel all that distance for nothing. Herman Epstein was an accessory to the crime, handing Beatty a neat pass just at the right time.

THERE are only seven of the 94 members on the four Terp spring sports squads who are not from Maryland or the District of Columbia, and all the coaches are former Old Line athletic aces.

An unusual feature of the track squad is that 19 of the 35 aspirants are field events men. Eppley has plenty of points among his runners and if the field contingent can come through in a fair manner, it will be just too bad for the other fellows. At any rate, it bids fair to be the best track team ever at College Park.

John Christhlf, junior, and Charlie Ellinger, soph, give Maryland the best pair of homes ever to throw at the 6-foot net for the Terps, says Jack Faber. "No two defense men will stop that pair," he opined.

Shipley's pre-season baseball statement was: "If we can get some good pitching to back up Physie and Vic (meaning Physie and Willis) we'll be up around the top."

Bopst also put himself out on the limb by saying, "We shouldn't lose more than two or three of our eight tennis matches."
